The Rotary Pavilion at The Peabody Institute Library, Danvers

The event starts and ends at the Rotary Pavilion on the grounds of the Peabody Institute Library, Danvers. Parking is available at the town lot adjacent to Town Hall.

Light the Night Purple is a community-friendly event to raise awareness of substance use prevention and treatment; to promote health, healing, and recovery; and to erase the stigma associated with this disease.

- Free and open to the community
- First 150 people receive a free T-shirt.
- Bring your family, friends, and neighbors. Show that you care.
- Wear purple, the color of sobriety!
- Celebrate spring. Celebrate life. Celebrate hope. Celebrate recovery.
- Prevention and treatment resource information available

The walk route is about one mile, down Elm Street, down High Street through Danvers Square, up the Rail Trail along Hobart Street and back to the Library.

Water provided.
Event will take place rain or shine.
