

HAWKS High Five Award

These awards are given out on calendar dates ending in 5. Staff nominate students for a HAWKS High Five for the following reasons:

- Helping other students without being asked
- Being kind and respectful to other students
- Including someone who was left out
- Respecting other students' differences
- Standing up for students who have been teased

Students who receive a Hawks High Five have their name read during morning announcements, receive a wristband and have their nomination form posted. Families are notified of this recognition via email.

Honor Roll

Students who earn a B- or higher in all subjects (both team and exploratory) during a trimester earn Honor Roll status. These students have their names published in the local newspaper.

High Honor Roll

Students who earn an A- or higher in all subject (both team and exploratory) during a trimester earn High Honors status. These students have their names published in the local newspaper.

Academic Recognition Night

Students who earn high honors in trimester 1 and 2 are honored with a "High Honors" certificate at our May Academic Recognition Night. Students who earn High Honors in either trimester 1 and 2 and honors in the other trimester receive a "Combination" certificate at our May Academic Recognition Night. Students may also be recognized for Excellence across the Exploratory Courses. Exploratory teachers nominate students for:

- Taking risks and trying new things
- Exploring one's creativity, discovering new talents and skills
- Being an active group member
- Making connections with other subjects and one's thinking

At the end of the school year any students who earned the same status across trimesters 1 and 3 or 2 and 3 receive letters of commendation for combination high honors/honors status.

Student of the Month

These awards are given out monthly by grade level teams. Students can be nominated for this award for the following reasons:

- Demonstrating improvement in work
- Being organized
- Being attentive in class
- Providing assistance to others
- Being cooperative
- Effectively participating in class
- Demonstrating leadership
- Putting forth great effort
- Other commendable behavior or actions as determined by the team

Students who receive Student of the Month receive a certificate and have their names posted on our wall of achievement.

Grade 8 Moving On Ceremonies

At the end of 8th grade all students who have completed their studies at HRMS receive a certificate of completion.
