

Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC)

Managing Behavior
The Challenges of Special Needs Temperaments, Typical Behavior Difficulties,
Principles of an Effective Behavior Plan

This workshop will address:

Temperaments of children with Autism Spectrum Disorder, ADHD and the Learning Disabled Child.

Typical behavior difficulties that occur at home and at school
Principles behind an effective behavior plan and individualized behavioral planning

Dr. Stember holds a Ph.D. in clinical psychology and maintains faculty appointments at Harvard Medical School and McLean Hospital. He is a recognized expert in cognitive behavioral/exposure-based therapy for anxiety, learning and behavioral disorders. He has given grand rounds presentations, trained educators, and consults to a variety of districts throughout New England. He is the former Director of Behavioral Medicine at North Shore Children's Hospital and maintains private practice offices in Salem and Arlington, MA. He can be contacted at his Salem office at \(978\)-745-6555.

Date: Wednesday, December 7, 2016

Location: Holten-Richmond Middle School Library

Time: Business Meeting 6:30 pm & Presentation 7:00 pm

Presented By Danvers SEPAC

Tom Savage email: tsavage@mysavagerealty.com

Jack Billings email: jwbillings915@gmail.com